

Dear Men,

Our 2017 Men's Retreat is scheduled for October 13&14. I am looking forward to having you all on the Island! Our speaker is Andy Giessman, founder of Addison's Walk Institute a ministry to college students in Scranton, Pa. Our theme is "Make a Defense" from 1 Peter 3:15. Through the years I have been in situations where, in my heart I knew what was right, or thought I knew what was right, but I couldn't logically defend my position. Men like Andy have helped me to solidify my own thoughts and stance on certain foundational questions that impact my Christian life. Like, "If there is a God, why is there evil?" or "Can you prove that God exists?" I have asked Andy to come and address some of these questions so that when they come up in your life you can have an answer too.

Our schedule for the retreat will look something like this:
